

Call for '21 fans'

Do you like to discuss with young adults from Turkey, Ukraine and Czech Republic and to get some insights into European fan scenes and their opinions to topics of various social exclusions?

Apply now!

Are you interested in the subject of anti-discrimination in fan scenes and football culture?

We are looking for participants as part of an 8-day meeting program.

Your requirements:

- You must be between 18 and 28 years.
- The communication will be in English, so a good knowledge of the language is required.

You must be vaccinated against Covid-19. This is necessary for organizational reasons.

Can politics, society and history of other countries be better understood through the eyes of football?

Workshops, excursions and visiting Football matches too, give you the opportunity to get to know other football cultures and to exchange ideas about forms of discrimination and exclusion mechanisms.

The meeting takes place from November 14th. - 22.11.2021 in Berlin. Transport, accommodation and meals will be covered. You will be accommodated in shared rooms.

If you would like to participate or have any questions, write an email to kontakt@gesellschaftsspiele.berlin, please describe your personal football connection and why you want to participate.

Application Deadline- 31.10.2021
