

One of the schools where the LRS program is taught.

Morning singing of the school anthem.

Girls who collect wood for cooking instead of going to school.

The only source of water in the village.

Opening one of the libraries

