

Picture 1: Our group of interns during traveling through South Sulawesi.

Picture 2: My host family where I was living during internship.

Picture 3: While we were having the session about Indonesian typical culture.

The reason why I've decided to go abroad was to challenge myself, that I can survive in developing country with different culture and people. And I did and I am very happy!

Miša, Olomouc

Indonésie

