

FOOTBALL FOR PEACE WORKSHOP

Graham Spacey

Through his work with Football 4 Peace International, Graham has travelled extensively across the world and has worked in Germany, Ireland, Jordan, South Korea, The Gambia, South Africa, Israel and the Palestinian Occupied Territories as a coach, trainer, mentor and researcher within various sporting intervention programmes. Graham is currently a PhD candidate at the University of Johannesburg in South Africa.

WEDNESDAY, 5 April 2017, at BALUO<sup>1</sup> – BIG GYM AT 4PM.

This workshop will provide participants with an introduction to the Football 4 Peace methodology. Football 4 Peace has had an impact in numerous countries by creating social transformation through the promotion of intercultural understanding, changing the policies of sporting organisations, inspiring peace ambassadors and shaping political discourse. Participants in this session will learn more about 'value based coaching' and how it can be applied in a variety of settings.

All the students are welcome.
