

COURSE WITH PROFESSOR FOUZI MOURJI
HASSAN II UNIVERSITY, CASABLANCA, MOROCCO

MRS/DCH2, MRS/XDCH2 – DEVELOPMENT CHALLENGES 2 (ECTS 4)

Professor Fouzi Mourji from the Faculty of Law, Economic and Social Sciences at the Hassan II University in Morocco is coming to visit our department for two weeks. He is the coordinator of two master programs at his home institution – the master of econometrics and the master of microfinance. He is very active in the field of development economics and his research focuses on microfinance. He is also the board member of AL AMANA Foundation for the distribution of microcredits.

This course is open to all students who will get 4 ECTS credits at the end.

OUTLINE OF THE COURSE:

1. Introduction to microfinance

- Basic principles
- Modes of functioning
- Concrete experience of MFIs

2. Informal sector

- Characteristics of non-structured production units
- Methodology to evaluate the share of the informal sector in the economy

3. Economic analysis of women in Morocco

4. The VAT policy, poverty and inequality

TIMETABLE:

Date	Time	Room
12. 4.	8:30 -11:30 am	3.005
12.4.	2 - 5 pm	2.004
19.4.	8:30 -11:30 am	3.005
19.4.	2 - 5 pm	2.004